feel-ing a sense of im por - tance, as if some-one spe-cial might need us. And 9
though we were tir-ed from tra - vel, and of-ten at risk of great dan - ger, We 11
found that the ac - tu - al star was born in a sim - ple man - ger.

Frank-in- cense, gold, and myrrh: the most pre-cious gifts we could be - stow. We thought of ma - te - ri - al things, not know-ing the ways we would grow. When 20
see-ing the child of Love, the chan-ges were hard to ig - nore. We 22
thought we were giv-ing so much, but sure-ly re-ceived so much more.
